

Complimentary Estate Planning Seminar

“Introduction to Estate Planning”

Learn from the attorneys what you should know about estate planning and what documents you and your family should have in place. Estate planning is important for everyone!

Important Questions to Consider:

- Do you have a will?
- Do you have children?
- Have you recently married or divorced?
- Have you recently bought or sold a house?
- Do you have digital assets or accounts?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, chances are you need to establish or update estate planning documents.

Rodnunsky & Associates specializes in custom estate planning documents. We offer complimentary consultations for anyone who thinks they may need to plan for the future.
